The VEDA project continues after its 2nd Transnational Partners' Meeting

The VEDA project continues to move forward! After months of preparation and several meetings, VEDA has already reached a new phase. Currently the project is developing the new platform where you can acquire all the necessary knowledge to become almost an expert in entrepreneurship, tourism and agritourism. Furthermore, at the end of January the second transnational meeting of the project partners took place in Palermo. It was an important opportunity to take stock and assess the successes that VEDA is achieving.
